DAVID R. CAMM

AFFIDAVIT

Detective, Sean Clemons being duly sworn upon his oath states as follows;

1. I am a Detective with the Indiana State Police.
2. On the 28th day of September, 2000 I was called to David R. Camm's residence at 7534 Lockhart Road, Georgetown, Floyd County, Indiana where I found three people who had been shot: Kimberly Camm, Bradley Camm, age 7, Jill Camm, age 5.
3. The following evidence has been processed from the crime scene at the above-mentioned address:
 - a. The crime scene was manipulated by use of a high Ph cleaning substance.
 - b. The tee shirt worn by David R. Camm on the above-mentioned date had high velocity blood mist which occurs in the presence of gunshot at the time of the shooting.
 - c. The cleaning substance was thrown over the back deck of the above-mentioned house also leaving a trail from the garage area, along with a transfer of blood on the house.

- d. A witness said that between 9:15 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. she heard three distinct sounds that can be interpreted as gunshots.
 - e. Jill Camm, age 5, had a recent tear in the vaginal area consistent with sexual intercourse.
 - f. There is a wet mop in a bucket in the utility room of the house at the above-mentioned address with the strong odor of bleach.
 - g. Witnesses playing basketball with David R. Camm said that he left the game on or around 9:00 p.m. and David R. Camm told them he was headed to his house, the above-mentioned crime scene.
 - h. There was a flow of blood from the garage that is inconsistent with the viscosity of blood and was aided in its flow by the presence of water and cleaning substance.
 - i. Kimberly Camm and Jill Camm were killed by gunshot wounds to the head from a certain .380 caliber firearm.
 - j. Bradley Camm was shot in the chest which exited in Bradley's back eventually killing Bradley Camm.
4. The above-mentioned information was gleaned from statements or reports made to me by Tracy Corey Handy, M.D., Dora Hunsaker, M.D., all pathologists, Robert Stites crime scene re-constructionist.
 5. I make these statements not as complete recital of all facts, but to establish probable cause.
 6. All of which gives me probable cause to believe that David R. Camm has committed Murder, in Floyd County, State of Indiana.
